

22-26 February 2026 San Jose, California, United States

Apply for a grant: spie.org/alp-for-students

Deadline: 14 November 2025

Students:

Learn about the exciting careers in the semiconductor industry

Experience this conference for free with a Student Grant

Network. Learn. Grow your career.

It's global.

The conference attendance, like the industry, is worldwide.

65% North America 14% Europe

19% Asia

SPIE Advanced Lithography

- + Patterning is the global conference for emerging technology in the semiconductor industry, showcasing:
- Optical and EUV lithography
- Patterning technologies
- Metrology
- Process integration for semiconductor manufacturing and adjacent applications

COURSES

CONFERENCES

EXHIBITION

Grant covers:

Reimbursement for travel and lodging

Up to $500 for U.S. domestic travel or $1,000 for international travel.

Visit spie.org/al-for-students or contact Josephine Hegeberg (josephineh@spie.org) for more information about the abstract submission process, for details about the selection process, or if you are employed by a company that wants to sponsor this program.

More student opportunities are available annually at spie.org/puv